A GATEWAY TO ENCHANTING ISLANDS AND LIVING TRADITIONS

Step into the heart of Irish culture with a journey through Donegal's Gaeltacht and its spellbinding islands. Here, the Irish language is not just spoken; it thrives in its most authentic form, resonating through songs, dances, and age-old folklore. Spanning from the southern Kilcar region, along the rugged West Coast, through the central Derryveagh range and the mystical Poisoned Glen, to the northern reaches of Fanad Head. Donegal's Gaeltacht is a living tapestry of Gaelic tradition.

Our islands, set like timeless gems in the Atlantic, embody the very essence of this rich culture. Each island, with its wild beauty and unique allure, has been a source of inspiration for artists and writers for millenia. Here, the vibrancy of Irish culture is not just observed but felt and experienced, woven into everyday life. As you wander these lands and sail to these isles, you'll find yourself stepping into a world where the Gaelic spirit is as palpable as the Atlantic breeze.

Welcoming Campers, Caravans, Campervans and Motorhomes to Donegal

Donegal is a hugely popular location for those camping or with caravans, campervans or motorhomes and to ensure the best possible experience for those visiting the county, we ask all visitors to:

1. PLAN AHEAD

2. BOOK AHEAD

3. FOLLOW OUR SIMPLE GUIDELINES

SCAN ME

LOCAL FACILITIES

- Spend time and immerse yourself in the community - Visit shops, bars, restaurants and service providers to enjoy the local offerings.
- Park only where authorised, ensuring that you don't outstay your welcome.
- Please reduce noise to a minimum in the evening, when on and offsite.

ENVIRONMENT

- Leave no trace and take all rubbish with you - Use Bring Banks and recycling facilities.
- Use on-site disposal systems at your campsite or Aire de Service stops for wastewater and grey water - Don't use public toilets, waterways and beaches for emptying wastewater.
- Unless in a location where clearly permitted, please avoid lighting fires/barbeques - Instead enjoy Donegal's indoor and outdoor dining offerings.
- Take care not to drive/park on sand dunes, fields or anywhere not permitted.
- Where possible, pull over to allow faster-moving traffic to overtake

LAND OWNERS

- Avoid entering private land unless permission has been granted.
- Close gates to protect livestock and keep any dogs on leads.
- Enjoy viewing farmyards, machinery, and animals from a distance.
- Give way to animals wandering our country roads.

Escape to Serenity

WHERE RELAXATION MEETS UNMATCHED HOSPITALITY

In today's bustling world, finding a moment of peace is priceless. Donegal offers a sanctuary of tranquillity and wellness. Treat yourself to luxurious spa therapies, rejuvenating treatments, or traditional seaweed baths available across the county. Each experience is designed to soothe your senses and rejuvenate your spirit. Indulge in these moments of bliss and let the serene ambiance of Donegal restore your inner peace.

WHERE THE WARMTH IS REAL, AND THE WELCOME IS (NOT) OPTIONAL

Donegal's pubs, known as the locals are more than just drinking spots; they are vibrant centres of community life, storytelling and musical gatherings. Here, the traditional Irish 'craic' is a way of life, and the laughter resonates as loudly as the music.

Step through the doors of any of our 200 pubs, and you'll find a place brimming with character and characters. From historic taverns with centuries-old stories etched into their walls to contemporary bars pulsing with modern energy, there's a pub to match every mood and moment.

The real magic of Donegal pubs lies in their ability to connect people. Whether you're engaging in a friendly debate with a local, joining a céilí dance, or simply soaking in the atmosphere, these pubs are where memories are made. They are the unofficial tourist offices of Donegal, where friendly publicans double as guides, offering insights into hidden gems and must-visit spots.

Crafting the Essence of Donegal

NATURE'S ARTISTRY IN THE HANDS OF LOCAL ARTISANS

For centuries, the majestic landscape of Donegal has been a muse for its craftspeople. The rugged beauty of the land is woven into the very fabric of Donegal tweed, while the ancient bog oak is transformed into stunning sculptures, embodying the spirit of the terrain. But Donegal's craftsmanship extends beyond these traditional forms. Each piece, whether it be handwoven textiles, intricate pottery, or unique jewellery, tells a story of the county's natural beauty and the creativity it inspires. Discover the exceptional and diverse crafts of Donegal, where each creation is a testament to the land's enduring influence.

Making Donegal Famous for Food

Find everything you could ever want from the Wild Atlantic Way: a sweeping and dramatic coastline, rugged mountains, secluded bays, beautiful beaches, and parklands and forests offering world class wilderness. Named as one of the top regions in the world to visit in 2024 by Lonely Planet, the county has so much to offer, including its food and world-renowned produce.

Donegal has an exceptionally high standard of natural ingredients and foods due to its unspoilt environment, climate and richly diverse landscape.

Food Coast Donegal has been established since 2012 and has at its core the objective of making Donegal famous for food, recognising the Donegal food and drink producers and food service providers. Food Coast Donegal is transitioning from agency driven to an industry led initiative, with support from local government agencies.

Embrace the Wild Atlantic Way of Life

- A one-of-kind adventure, the Wild Atlantic Way's stunning 2,600km of coastline is the world's longest defined coastal touring route.
- Stretching along the magnificent west of Ireland coastlines from Inishowen in Co Donegal to Kinsale in Co Cork you'll find culture in abundance, gastronomic gems and warm welcomes alongside stunning sea and landscapes that make this truly, the road trip of a lifetime.

Strolling along the sandy splendour of the Blue Flag beach of Ballymastocker. Glimpsing the wondrous beauty of the northern lights from the Inishowen Peninsula. Hiking through the rugged majesty of Glenveagh National Park. Donegal is listed as the coolest place on the planet by National Geographic Traveller magazine, this great county encapsulates everything that's magical about the Wild Atlantic Way. And that's especially the case when you catch sight of the rugged sea cliffs of Sliabh Liag for the first time. Standing over 600m, they are among the highest in Europe. The venerable Pilgrim's Path is the ideal place for walkers to get a sense of the scale of these cliffs. Memories to last a lifetime are also in order at Fanad Head Lighthouse, and no visit is complete without taking in the breath-taking Lough Swilly and picturesque Mulroy Bay. It's out on these western extremities along the Wild Atlantic Way that you'll become enveloped by the rugged beauty of the landscape, echoed by the ocean's roar.

Things you must do in Donegal...

govisitdonegal.com

Fanad Head

See the light at Fanad Lighthouse!

Golden sandy beaches and rolling farmland threaded by narrow roads set the scene in the secluded Fanad peninsula squeezed in between Lough Swilly and Mulroy Bay and leading to spectacular Fanad Head where you can take a tour and climb to the top of the lighthouse.

Glenveagh National Park

Look out for golden eagles

The largest track of land in the wildest part of Donegal, Glenveagh National Park incorporates moorland, mountains, lakes and woods within its 40,000 acres of wilderness. Tours of the Castle and Gardens also available.

Donegal Islands

A get away from it all

Donegal's islands offer something special: a get away from it all, a feeling of being somewhere unlike anywhere else in the world. The inhabited islands have ferry services from various ports on mainland Donegal and some of the small craft operators will take passengers to the uninhabited islands.

Malin Head

Ireland's most northerly point

Catch a cloudless evening and you may be enchanted by a night sky display of the Aurora Borealis, the Northern Lights. The celestial light show, with its ghostly wispy rays of dancing colours has been seen hanging like a fluorescent curtain over Malin Head – what better reason to go than to witness this astonishing sight.

Grianán Ailigh

Awaken your mystical spirit

Perched 800 ft. above sea level on a spectacular hilltop, the Grianán of Ailigh fort is a former home of the Irish High Kings. The origins of this circular site are believed to date from around 1700 BC.

Sliabh Liag

Drink in some of the best views in Europe

A narrow road twists steeply up from Teelin to the dramatic Sliabh Liag cliffs and mountains. From the viewing point, you look across one of the finest panoramas in Europe that will set your heart racing.

Donegal Distilleries

Raise a glass to our spirit of tradition

The county's distilleries offer a unique blend of tradition, craftsmanship, and warm hospitality, making them a must-visit during your trip. Renowned for producing premium whiskeys and gins, these distilleries provide an authentic taste of the county's rich heritage. Take a tour to learn about the distilling process, hear stories of local traditions, and, of course, enjoy a tasting session of expertly crafted spirits.

Blue Flag Beaches

Where every wave tells a story

Donegal is home to some of Ireland's most breath-taking Blue Flag beaches, renowned for their pristine sands, crystal-clear waters, and stunning coastal views. With 12 beaches awarded the prestigious Blue Flag status, Donegal offers the perfect backdrop for relaxation, water sports, or scenic walks. From the golden stretches of Bundoran and Rossnowlagh to the secluded beauty of Culdaff and Fintra, each beach has its own unique charm.
